

“Native and California Friendly are the best plants”

There are more than 6,000 varieties of native and California Friendly plants to choose from. And you won't have any trouble choosing the right ones for your garden. They're every bit as colorful as other plants, without being nearly as thirsty. And that's a beautiful thing. To learn more log on to bewaterwise.com

Family of
Southern California
Water Agencies

bewaterwise.com